What Is The Annie Armstrong Offering?

Annie Armstrong (1850-1938)

Annie was born in Baltimore at a time when there was little opportunity for women. Yet, her devotion to Christ led her to a life of service and leadership. She organized women to pray, to give and to meet the needs around them. She challenged pastors and churches to action and rallied vital support for missionaries. Ultimately, Annie was recognized as a national Southern Baptist trailblazer for her visionary leadership that still inspires millions today.

Annie's Contributions

Started Bay View Mission for Baltimore's poor and addicted

Served as the first executive of Woman's Missionary Union.

Led the formation of missions' organizations for children

Raised support for missionaries to Italian and Jewish immigrants

Refused a salary because she would never give to the Lord "that which costs me nothing." (2 Samuel 24:24)

Initiated fund-raising "brick cards" to build churches in Cuba

Gained support for the first black, female missionaries

Secured funds to relieve China missionary, Lottie Moon, who had served for 11 years without a furlough

Advocated for Native Americans and impoverished mountain people

Honored in 1934 when The Home Missions Offering was re-named for her to encourage more to follow her sacrificial example
